The Discussing that Ideological and Political Curriculum Piloting Education

Wang Rui

(School of Marxism, University of Electronic Science and Technology of China, Chengdu 611731, Sichuan)

At present, the key to strengthening and improving the ideological and political education work in Colleges and universities is to promote the collaborative education of Ideological and political curriculum and education, and the core of the collaborative education is to give full play to the guiding role of Ideological and political curriculum in ideological and political education. The guidance which is of great strategic significance to ensure the correct course and development quality of Ideological and political education, improve the innovation vitality and development realm of Ideological and political education, build a benign curriculum ecology of Ideological and political education in Colleges and universities, and promote the effective realization of the goal of talent training in Socialist Colleges and universities. The focus of this guidance is leading the teachers to be the “main force” role, leading the curriculum construction to be the “main battle field” layout, leading the construction of classroom teaching as the “main channel”. Implementing the “Ideological and Political Curriculum pilot plan”, promoting the progressive development of the connotation and extension of the ideological and political curriculum, and piloting the ideological and Political education in the collaborative linkage are the realistic way for the Ideological and political curriculum pilot education to move from what should be to what is.
